

Bua Na Cainte At Home is free of charge and is available through the link below

<https://app.buaathome.ie/>

Bua Na Cainte is the Irish program being used at school by teachers and using Bua Na Cainte At Home would be a great way of enhancing your child's Irish proficiency. There is an array of animated conversations, where the children watch and listen to characters converse through Irish in exiting and interesting settings.

Each class level features a range of stimulating and lively songs, rhymes and poems to teach Gaeilge to children in an enjoyable way. Characters perform the songs on screen with actions making the whole experience more interactive.

Each class level also features stimulating animated stories, incorporating new and traditional tales that appeal to children of all ages.